

Words with more than one meaning

Some words have more than one meaning.

For example:

You should check your working of every sum.

The bookmaker wore a check suit.

Charge Express Plane Stern Chest Ground Spring Coach Litter Temple

Write in the word from the list above to complete the meaning:

1. There was _____ in the street because some people did not use the rubbish bins.
Trixie had a _____ of six lovely puppies
2. The carpenter kept his tools in a wooden _____ .
A cold on the _____ often makes breathing difficult.
3. The _____ for admission to the circus was £5.
The troops were told to _____ the enemy.
4. He could not find the words to _____ his thanks.
The _____ train was travelling at 150 kilometres an hour.
5. The _____ was covered with fallen leaves.
Coffee beans are roasted and then _____ in a machine.
6. The daffodil is my favourite _____ flower.
The _____ of the clock was broken.
7. A _____ man is very strict and severe.
The back end of a boat is called the _____ .
8. Carpenters _____ wood to make it smooth..
The _____ circled the airport twice before landing.
9. Several Hindus were worshipping in the _____
A blow on the _____ rendered the man unconscious.
10. A new master had been appointed to _____ the boys at cricket.
The _____ had a driver and thirty-five passengers.

Both are temples

